

WU – TA Advanced Transfer Pricing Programme 2019

About the programme

The WU – TA Advanced Transfer Pricing Programme is offered by the WU Transfer Pricing Centre at the Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law at WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) and the Tax Academy of Singapore.

The four-day programme is facilitated by a team of professors from the WU Transfer Pricing Centre and regional tax experts from international advisory firms, industry and tax administrations.

The programme provides participants with the latest update on international transfer pricing developments, and knowledge and insights to handle transfer pricing issues in specialised industries that are of relevance to the Asia-Pacific region. Workshops will be provided for all topics enabling opportunities for discussions.

A great opportunity to network with TP experts from academic and industry both local and overseas. Sign up now to enjoy the early-bird rate!

Who should attend

The course is targeted at professionals from the industry, practice, government service, judiciary or academia, who want to deepen their knowledge in transfer pricing. Participants should have at least three years' tax experience and basic knowledge of transfer pricing, equivalent to Tax Academy's Level 1 (International Tax) Executive Tax Programme.

What our past participants say

Ms Jillian Lim

Executive Director, Singapore Economic Development Board

The programme provided good insights into transfer pricing developments, with content that was current and relevant, and helped to draw out key issues for discussion. I especially appreciated that the speakers were able to deliver a mix of perspectives from academia, practitioner as well as private sector angles.

Mr Matthew Peter Keats

Banking Supervisor, Reserve Bank of New Zealand

A very well-organised and comprehensive course, covering the technical aspects of transfer pricing in a post-BEPS world, complemented with great presentations by experts from academia and private practice, with ample opportunities to discuss ideas and concepts with fellow practitioners. A thoroughly enjoyable experience. Thank you again, Vienna University of Economics and Business and Tax Academy of Singapore!
